

Need For Building Brought Sangamo Firm To Newmarket

The town of Newmarket held a reception for executives of the Sangamo Electric Co. in the officers' mess at the military camp Monday afternoon. The Sangamo Electric Co. is leasing the hospital building, effective in August, and may lease other buildings at the camp if needed. Present at the reception were members of the Newmarket town council and representatives from industry in Newmarket.

Q. W. Lawrence, president of the Canadian plant at Leaside, under whose auspices the new plant is being operated in Newmarket, said that it "was the need of a roof over our head" that prompted the company to look to Newmarket for a site for its new plant. The Sangamo company will produce electric capacitors or condensers which are required in radios and other electronic products.

"The Sangamo plant in Newmarket will be the second in Canada to make the condensers," Mr. Lawrence said. "There is another firm in Hamilton making them, otherwise all condensers have had to be imported from the United States." The company builds electric meters and motors and the production of condensers will be a new departure.

The Leaside plant of the Sangamo company was established in 1913 and now employs 600. Mr. Lawrence said that it was expected that 40 would be employed in Newmarket, mostly girls and women, and as much as possible, those who lived in Newmarket or its vicinity. "It is very light but intricate work at which women and girls have been found to be expert," said Mr. Lawrence. "It will take us a few months to get into production because we must set up machinery which is hard to get at present."

The parent company of the Sangamo Electric is situated in Springfield, Ill. Mr. Lawrence said that the word "sangamo" is Indian for "chief" and that the word has common usage in the district of Springfield.

Councillor Jos. Vale, chairman of the industrial committee of the Newmarket town council, said that the Sangamo company would sign a three-year lease on the building with option for renewal and possibly option to purchase the building.

Mr. Lawrence said that the Newmarket plant would be operated independently of the Leaside plant and managed by an engineer living in Newmarket.

Plan Extra Playgrounds For Younger Children

It was decided to operate playgrounds for children six years and under at St. John's school and Alexander Muir school at a meeting of the executive of the Newmarket Community Recreation Council Tuesday night. The council executive met in the room over the firehall.

The decision followed after it had been pointed out by members of the executive, and by recreation co-ordinator E. R. Mather, that many of the children in that age group in the north end of town were missing the benefits of the Lions club program at Lions club park because of the distance. It was felt that by operating supplementary playgrounds at the two schools, supervised recreation could be provided sufficiently close at hand to reach all children in Newmarket.

It was estimated by Mr. Mather that each playground could serve over 40 children under six years of age.

The playgrounds will be supervised from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1:30 to 4 p.m. by Peggy Calvert, Joyce Hargreaves, Barbara Pritchard and Dorothy Vernon. The playgrounds will be equipped with sandboxes, simple teeter-totters, swings, and other play equipment suitable to the age group, Mr. Mather said.

The girls in charge will supervise group games, singing games and simple craft activities. There will be no enrolment of children, nor will there be any fee to parents, Mr. Mather said. The costs of the project will be met by the recreation council.

Mr. Mather stressed that the two playgrounds were being opened not in opposition to the Lions club program, but to meet the needs of children who lived too far away from the Lions park to participate in the Lions club program. The age-limit of six was set because it was felt that children older than this could take advantage of the park program.

Juniors Take Opener, 23-2, Of York Lions Semi-Finals

Newmarket "Redmen" moved out in front in the opening game of the semi-final series for the championship of the North York Lions junior ball league at Pasky Park on Tuesday. The locals had no difficulty in subduing the Stouffville juniors 23-2. The Redmen pounded the ball throughout, punching out 15 hits as they showed no mercy to the three pitchers sent to the mound by Stouffville.

The visitors proved very weak on the defensive and six errors were chalked up against them. Canastota sent runs over in all but one inning, getting off to a flying start with seven in the opener and from there on the score was never in doubt.

Left-fielder Bill Johnston highlighted the fielding performance with a sensational one-handed running catch in the fourth, while the work of Stan Winger behind the plate rated three stars.

Winger showed plenty of pep and his throws to second were right on the mark. Lefty Gibson started on the mound for the Redmen and had the visitors going down swinging or sending up easy flies. Gibby helped his own cause with a single in the third that sent two of his mates scampering home. When Gibson developed a sore arm, Tommy Dales took over in the fifth and held the Stouffville squad off the score sheet in the last two frames.

The Redmen now move over to Stouffville on Friday evening for the second game of the semi-finals. A win will put them into the finals against the winner of the Aurora-Milliken series.

Newmarket line-up: Stan Winger, Ivan Gibson, Tom Dales, Grant Blight, Red Palmater, Jim Rutledge, John McTavish, Don Brown, Ken Thoms, Bill Johnston.

Judy Neufeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Neufeld, and Alice Le Gresley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reg Le Gresley, do a bit of extra-curricular mud pie making. The children taking swimming instruction are of grade school age or younger.

Average 150 Children At Lions Park Program

An average of 150 children of grade school age participate in the Newmarket Lions club summer program of supervised recreation in the Lions club park, Mickey Smith, supervisor, said this week.

"We had 900 children here last week up until Friday when the rainstorm came," said Mr. Smith. "If it wasn't for the rain, our average would have been a lot higher."

Under the direction of Mr. Smith and his four assistants, the children engage in group games of all varieties, while the smaller children use the teeter-totters, swings and sand boxes. Wednesday afternoon, for example, there were two baseball games, a croquet match and a volleyball game going on simultaneously in various parts of the park.

The age of the children ranges from two and three years to 14 and 15 years. The program runs for six weeks and started a week ago Monday. There is no charge for parents, all costs of the program being met by the Lions club.

This is the second year the club program has been operated. Last year, the club initiated the program under the direction of Vice Principal Fred L. Hall. With the overwhelming success of the program, there was no question of not continuing it.

Mr. Smith said that he had plans for meeting other recreation groups, such as the one in Barrie, for baseball competition. Next week, Mr. Smith said he might try a kite-building contest at the park. The program operates every week-day afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30.

Assisting Mr. Smith are Audrey Rowland and Glenna West, both of whom were in the last year program, Donny Duncan and Don Gibson.

SWIMMING INSTRUCTION AT LAKE WILCOX

Ivo Ramm supervises the loading of a bus with children on their way to Lake Wilcox where a swimming program is being sponsored by the Newmarket Community Recreation Council. Buses leave Newmarket three times, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday morning each week. Mr. Ramm acts as despatcher and also rides with the children to and from the lake.

At the lake, the children are given a half-hour of instruction by qualified teachers. From left to right, standing: Dick Mather, recreation co-ordinator, Mrs. David Neufeld, Audrey Rowland, Barney Westcott; kneeling: Arlene McTavish, Ted Arthurs and Kathleen Mathews.

Here the children are shown becoming accustomed to the water under the supervision of Kathleen Mathews and Audrey Rowland. The swimming spot has a gently sloping beach and the children are watched at all times.

After their swim, the children climb aboard the bus for the return trip under the eye of driver Roy LeBar. The children are at the lake for close to an hour. Photos by L. Racine.

Appropriate Trucks To Rush 7 Accident Victims To Hospital

One person died of injuries and two others are seriously injured following a two-car accident on the highway six miles north of Bradford Wednesday noon. Mrs. Marie Karson, 35, Detroit, Mich., died 20 minutes after she was admitted to York County hospital. Her husband, Jack D. Karson, and Mrs. Irene Hamilton, Walmer Road, Toronto, are in York County hospital with serious injuries.

W. E. RUTLEDGE 38 YEARS HERE AS MACHINIST

Retiring as a machinist about a week before he became ill, two weeks ago, William Edward Rutledge died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Allan Mills, 82 Prospect Ave., Newmarket, on Monday, July 22, as a result of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Born in East Gwillimbury on Jan. 26, 1869, Mr. Rutledge was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Rutledge. He married Selena Travis on Sept. 2, 1903, and she predeceased him on April 8, 1940.

Mr. Rutledge was a sawyer before coming to Newmarket 38 years ago. He was a member of Trinity United church.

Mr. Rutledge is survived by two sons, William Alexander, Hamilton, and Harold Borden, Toronto, three daughters, Mrs. Allan Mills (Selena Lorine), Newmarket, Mrs. Morley Rowland (Kathleen Elizabeth), and Mary Annie Rutledge, both of Vancouver, B.C., six brothers, Marvin, Alexander, Robert, Lester, Merton and Argyle, and six sisters, Mrs. Minnie Peregrine, Mrs. Eliza Widdifield, Mrs. Harriet Ostley, Mrs. Edith Clarkson, Mrs. Bertha Clarkson and Mrs. Delena Hamilton. One son, Albert Edward, one brother, Sherman, and one sister, Mrs. Minota Crowder, predeceased him.

The pallbearers were Earl Pipher, Fred Chantler, H. N. Graham, C. S. McCauley, Wesley Brooks and C. F. Willis.

Rev. Henry Cotton, assisted by Rev. R. R. McMath, conducted the funeral service at Trinity United church on Wednesday afternoon. Interment was made in Newmarket cemetery.

—Miss Nancy Bell, Park Ave., spent the weekend at Skeleto Lake as the guest of Miss Claire Koffend.

Four other persons, Miss Iris Karson, Detroit, and Wm. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Hamilton, Walmer Road, Toronto, are also in York County hospital suffering from multiple lacerations received in the accident. Dr. W. Craig Watson, Bradford, is attending physician. He was called to the scene of the accident where he administered first aid before having the injured removed.

Constable Cecil Dean, provincial constable at Bradford, is investigating the accident but at press time, had not completed his reports.

Two cars were involved in the accident. In one car were Mr. and Mrs. Karson and their daughter, Iris. In the other were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. (Irene) Hamilton and Mr. Hamilton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Hamilton.

The injured were brought to York County hospital by three trucks which had been commandeered on the highway by Dr. Watson.

One truck came north on Main St. with its lights on and horn blaring shortly after 1 p.m. Eye-witnesses to the truck's arrival said it was of the dump truck type and that the back of the truck had been cushioned with blankets. Some of the injured were carried there and others in the cab of the truck.

Coroner Dr. L. W. Dales said there would be an inquest.

War Bride Sees Brother For First Time In 16 Yrs.

A recent arrival on the Queen Mary, Mrs. S. C. Hansen, formerly of Ayrshire, Scotland, is staying with her brother, Wm. Greig, Gorham St., until she joins her husband who has a homestead in the Peace River district. Mrs. Hansen married during the war. She had not seen her brother for 16 years.

Happy to be in Canada, Mrs. Hansen said she is most impressed by the amount of sunshine. "It makes a contrast with our rainy weather in Scotland," she said. She found the stores "bewildering" with their profusion of goods on the shelves.

Mrs. Hansen was a volunteer worker on a mobile canteen during the war and while working in London, lost her hearing for three weeks when a bomb fell close to her.

She said that her husband wasn't expecting her until December but now that she has arrived in Canada, his neighbors are helping him rush the completion of their home in the north.

During her stay here, Mrs. Hansen is seeing as much of this part of Ontario as possible, making a trip to Niagara Falls among others.

Brisk Bidding Opens Sale At Camp Before Big Crowd

Bidding was brisk as the furnishings, sports equipment, barber chairs, adding machines, typewriters, and all the thousands of objects left in the Newmarket military camp when the camp was closed by the army, were knocked down to the highest bidder Wednesday afternoon in the first day of a two-day auction sale. The sale continues this afternoon and evening beginning at 7 p.m.

Eager buyers came from Toronto in large numbers as well as from the surrounding farms, and towns and villages. Estimates of the crowd ranged as high as 3,000 with a large part of those present crowding into the drill hall where auctioneer J. Miller of Ward Price Ltd., Toronto, called for bids.

There was wide range in price as typewriters were knocked down for $70, coffee urns such as are found in restaurants went for $70, a hand cultivator for $18, an adding machine for $85, and a chesterfield for $140. An electric washing machine sold for $70.

The parade ground was lined with cars and others parked down Gorham St. on both sides of the road, and on all roads leading to the camp. The crowd started to gather as early as noon although the auction sale didn't begin until 2 p.m.

Much of the bidding was done on behalf of second hand stores in Toronto with the odd bit of furniture going to Newmarket buyers.

TOWN ENGINEER A SOUND MOVE

Councillor Joseph Vale, chairman of the industrial commission of the Newmarket town council, has given notice that he would introduce at the next meeting of the Newmarket town council a motion to authorize the full time employment of a graduate civil engineer.

Mr. Vale's notice of motion arose from the oft repeated assertion by various members of council that the work members of council must do is more than should be expected of what amounts to a voluntary group of public spirited men. Following the closing of the negotiations with the Canadian Hoffman Co., Mr. Vale said then that the work entailed had taken so much of his time that his own business had suffered. Others were in the same position.

It is often forgotten that the members of the Newmarket town council all have their own businesses to look after as well as the town business and at the present rate of expansion in Newmarket, members of the council are increasingly called upon to do work which cuts unreasonably into their own time. The office of councillor carries with it the understanding that it entails extra labor. However, there can be no question that the present council has gone far beyond what is expected of them in their efforts on behalf of the municipality. On this score alone, the employment of a trained man to assume some of the detailed work and relieve the town councillors for more leisurely consideration of local problems is justified.

There is another aspect of the employment of a trained engineer which is even more pressing. The expansion of Newmarket is bringing with it problems which increasingly call for expert advice. Newmarket retains a consulting engineer but he is not always available when needed. For example, the disposal of the Newmarket military camp property in the best interests of the town will need constant expert advice. The property offers so many advantageous uses that the council will be hard put to make a choice. Sale or leasing the property to industry is not the only answer.

Constant attention is also needed to uphold the by-laws which affect construction. A town plan by which its expansion can be directed to the best advantage is badly needed. Sooner or later, the property along Davis Dr., west of Main St., will open into a new business section. Planning against that day is a necessity now.

The town council is primarily a policy-making body. At the present time, its members must deal with details to such an extent that the broad picture of town needs is often obscured by the needs of individual departments. A graduate engineer is a sound suggestion to not only ease the burden on councillors but to provide for planned expansion and improvement of existing facilities.

ABATING JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

The Juvenile Law Reform League, Victoria, B.C., is conducting a campaign to have the federal laws applying penalties to juvenile convictions changed to include corporal punishment. The league is apparently convinced of the truth of the old saw that to spare the rod is to spoil the child.

In pamphlets published by the league, it is argued that the increase in juvenile delinquency would be slowed and eventually halted by the application of corporal punishment to juvenile law-breakers. One pamphlet mentions "five different warnings of the terrible consequences which follow the failure to chastise children" which are attributed to Solomon. "Are we wiser than Solomon?" it is asked.

While respecting the league's purpose, the curbing of juvenile delinquency, in its zeal to offer the cure it would appear that the league is over-looking the prevention of juvenile delinquency. The league apparently accepts juvenile delinquency as an unalterable fact to be cured only by corporal punishment.

The league, we feel, would accomplish more were it to concentrate on removing the causes of juvenile delinquency instead of waiting until the law was broken and then punishing the juvenile so that he wouldn't do it again.

The league might exert its influence to have slums removed since it has been proven that slum areas are a breeding place for juvenile delinquency no less than for crime among adults. The league might devote its energies and the undoubted talent of its members to doing what it can to assure there will be no future wars since war is followed by increased juvenile delinquency.

The league might do what it could to re-establish home life which has been deteriorating since the turn of the century. Much juvenile delinquency is directly attributed to broken homes. Or the league might provide recreation centres as a decent outlet for juvenile energy. In some of the larger cities in the United States, the city police have served in their spare time as hobby directors, handicraft instructors, club organizers, coaches, and big brothers to juvenile gangs with the result that potential delinquents have become sound members of society. We recommend to the league that it sponsor such work in Canada.

While there are some delinquents who would profit from corporal punishment, the majority of those appearing in juvenile courts need never have been allowed to go so far. Abating juvenile delinquency rests not in corporal punishment but in keeping children from ever having to appear in court.

DOGS CAN TEACH US MUCH

The possession of a dog carries with it an automatic entrée into that ancient, honorable and somewhat exclusive order of dog owners. Dating back to the time the first cave men tamed their first dogs, the honorable and ancient order recognizes no distinction of age, sex, and social standing among its members. While it is true that some of the more recent candidates to the order, owners of purebreds with pedigrees as long as your arm, are inclined to snob the possessor of a backyard mongrel, the rule is that the dog is the thing and if the dog likes his master and the master likes the dog, all conditions have been fulfilled.

The other night, we were being led up Main St. by our cocker when a youngster of eight years or so attached himself to the possession. He identified himself as a brother of the order and with some diffidence remarked that he had a collie, six years old, by name of Teddy. Teddy was a boon companion and boy and dog had shared some colorful adventures in the nearby fields and bush.

Moreover, Teddy had something of a record in criminal detection, having scared off some marauders with his loud barking in the dead of one winter's night. We were somewhat abashed at this, our cocker barking only when there is no one around to witness the sad spectacle of a pup being frightened by the sound of his own voice. We said nothing, however, Mac's secret shame being ours.

Fortunately, our brother dog owner changed the subject. "Your dog is a hunting dog, isn't he?" he asked. We assured him he was, a mighty hunter at that. The fact is that after a hectic chase, Mac caught a frog and brought it home, quite proud of himself. Our companion's eyes looked upon Mac with new respect. "He's rather small for hunting, isn't he?" he asked doubtfully. "Size is no object," we assured him. "It's the spirit that counts."

From there the talk drifted into the problems of keeping long-haired dogs with tendencies to play in burr patches. We found common ground there as we did in talking over the various canine ills which were discussed with all the avidity for details of dotting mothers thrashing out their youngsters' sicknesses at a school tea party. When we parted at the top of the hill, we were fast friends, linked by our possession of dogs.

We can't help moralizing on the value of man's four-footed companions. They do far more for us than we can return by teaching concern for others, standing by when less faithful friends have left, and bringing us in contact with others who share in the same pleasure of owning a dog.

In Passing

"Canada must frame a policy for the Arctic," the Financial Post says in a front page editorial. Canada has been under pressure from the United States to provide some means of defence along its northern frontier, as well as to aid in the setting up of weather stations, the Post says. In a news story in the Post, it is reported that a meteorological expedition which was to sail from Boston to the Arctic to establish weather bases was halted when the Dominion cabinet refused to participate in the expedition. According to the Post, everything was ready for the expedition when "officialdom, worried about Canadian sovereignty and how Russia would view the undertaking, stepped in and stalled the undertaking."

The Midland Free Press Herald suggests editorially that provision of "dry" public rooms where men and women can get together socially would be an effective way to combat the abuses of the present beverage room policy of the provincial government.

The editor of the Bolton Enterprise of 50 years ago viewed with alarm the increasing popularity of the bicycle. He wrote:

"John Bolton broke his arm while bicycling. Is this new fad too dangerous? Many do not appear to think the bicycle craze conduces to matrimonial alliances. The bicycle is decreasing marriages. One hundred thousand bicycles are now in use in the country. A young man now takes his wheel out for an airing instead of his girl. Of course, girls have the bikes too but bicycle sparking strikes us as being a mighty poor substitute for the old-fashioned kind, the old walnut sofa, the cloth-covered sofa, the spring seated sofa you hung on so well. The old style buggy ride is good enough—that is, it was good enough for us."

The Scarboro police are reported to have issued the warning to parents of minors who have been breaking windows and damaging woodwork in buildings under construction that they would have to pay the costs of charges brought against their children. Here is a suggestion that should be given more prominence. By penalizing the parents of minors who have broken the law, a greater awareness of their responsibilities for their children's actions would be brought home to parents in general. It is the parents' fault if the child does not respect the law.

This sign was noted on a suburban road: "Beware! To touch these wires means instant death. Any one doing so will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law."

The severe electrical storm Friday shows how dependent we have become on the services of others. Supper couldn't be cooked upon an electric stove and food in electric refrigerators risked spoiling when the power went off. Grandmother was better off with her wood range and ice house.

VAUGHAN TO BE COMMENDED (The Liberal, Richmond Hill)

Vaughan council is to be commended for its decision to license and exercise some control over tourist camps. There can be no reason why any group of people living even for a night in a community should not be subject to the public authority. Hotel guests are subject to it. Why not tourist camp guests? And why should they not be a source of revenue when year-round residents of a town or village are obliged to provide public revenue in the form of taxes.

Young Hopefuls

By DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Miss Betty Entertains
Miss Betty is five years old and possesses a child's natural curiosity and eagerness for participation in the activities around her.

For the past three years, Betty's mother has been trying to "get rid of her" at times when she is too busy to answer her questions and at times when she is trying to entertain guests. The difficulties have increased with the years. Miss Betty can't be confined to the play pen, her room, or even the yard anymore. She doesn't want to miss a thing. At one time, mother could do extra cooking, baking, and cleaning in preparation for guests during Betty's sleeping hours; but now, mother is ready for a rest herself after Betty's busy day is ended.

It is really time Betty had a definite share in the preparations for guests. She can be responsible for the last minute and often superfluous dusting of table tops, chair rounds, etc. while mother is busy with the vacuum sweeper or floor mop. There's no reason why Betty can't take a place by the kitchen sink and try to wash and dry dishes and utensils faster than mother dirties them. Betty could set most of the table and even use a polishing cloth on the silver.

Another little job that would be helpful to mother and pleasurable to Betty would be picking flowers for the table. To avoid roots and all or blossoms without stems a pair of blunt scissors and a measuring stick should be provided Betty for the purpose of cutting fairly uniform stem lengths. This will take time and will be an important contribution. If flowers aren't in season, the table decoration could be anything from little clay animals arranged on a mirror lake to repainted artificial flowers in a bowl. There is no limit to designs for decoration. Soon Betty won't need her mother's suggestions but will be doing her own designing. Betty can be kept busy for hours—happy with her part in getting ready for the company.

Previous to the company's arrival and before the scurry of last minute preparations, Betty should know who is coming and what to expect. Interesting stories could be told her about the expected company, pictures from books and magazines might be found that would be suitable for illustrations, then Betty might be encouraged to draw or color some pictures to please herself and at least amuse the guests.

Before the company arrives, tentative plans might be made for Betty to have a share in the entertaining. Her part in the program could necessitate considerable time in her room for preparation after the company arrives. She might arrange a fashion show with her dolls. It would take time to dress them and herself with ribbons and materials saved for the purpose. She might prepare an art exhibit of cut-outs, colored or drawn pictures or arrange a parade with her animals. There is no limit to the ways she can learn to entertain guests—ways that will keep Betty happily occupied while mother and the company enjoy some adult conversation between shows.

Children cannot be suddenly ignored when there is company; yet, if they are to be other than a nuisance, they must be kept busy. Even children, who ordinarily entertain themselves beautifully, want to be the center of attention when guests are present. If they can content themselves to sit quietly with a toy or picture book, that's a different story; but Miss Betty is like the majority of healthy, active children and needs plenty of outlet for her energies.

ELECTRIC EYE

By J. JAY WATSON

What is spoken of as the electric eye is a contrivance by which, for example, as a person approaches a door so equipped, the door is automatically made to open before him as his shadow falling upon the "electric eye" sets in motion the machinery which opens the door.

Sometimes in a large office building, or railway stations, one will come upon a door operated in this way. When the door opens without even so much as extending one's hand for a push, one is apt to feel something akin to egotism as the door swings as if by authoritative command.

There is available to all, if we choose, what might be called an "electric eye" of the spirit as applied to character. In the time of Moses, the Commandments for God's guidance of mankind were given to the world. The influence and coloring of man's life by these commandments might be as an "electric eye," automatically kindling the Christian principles the world needs that peace may reign over the earth.

The desire for peace might well be expressed in terms given by Amos: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord Jehovah, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of Jehovah."

THE COMMON ROUND ANNIVERSARY

By ISABEL INGLIS COLVILLE

Anniversaries seem to loom large in the life of the individual, the community and the nation—they are the milestones by which we measure progress or retrogression, and so are important.

The birthdays of each of us—a day after we have left the joyful celebrating of extreme youth behind us, when we take stock of our resources—mental, spiritual and physical; a day when we look on our inner glass and even if we see but darkly, it gives us some idea of our development.

The birthday of a community, large or small, when people who have wandered away from it come back to taste its hospitality, enter into its celebration and wonder either why they ever left it or what charm it ever had for them.

The birthday of a nation—when the nation, amid its flag-flying and patriotic speeches, takes stock of its resources in leaders, in its men, women and children, in its riches on land and sea and in its spiritual and humanitarian outlook on life and its connection with the great world where nations now must live close together.

And then there are the church anniversaries, for in every Christian land the first impulse of men was to erect a building, dedicated to the glory and worship of God.

Churches have always been sanctuaries, even to giving shelter to those threatened by death, and a church's anniversary is a combination of all other anniversaries for in it, we bring our young to be baptized, to become members of the Christian fellowship, to be married, to be buried and in it the life of the community and the nation is reflected. One wonders, seeing a deserted church, just where the failure lay.

But to come to one particular anniversary—that of the Pine Orchard Union church. A year ago it opened its doors for worship. Some of the old meeting house is incorporated in its sturdy frame, like the great beams that form the chancel setting, a monument to the sturdy pioneer folk who first met to worship in that spot.

On Sunday it celebrated its first anniversary and, adorned with beautiful flowers, welcomed all those who met to rejoice that it was still a house of God.

It was also the occasion of the unveiling of the honor roll which stood on a table in front of the chancel steps. One of the pleasantest things of the day was the presence of Rev. R. R. McMath, whose efforts helped so greatly in bringing the present church into being and who also planned in great part the order of service which follows.

Doxology; invocation and Lord's Prayer, led by Rev. N. Rowan, present pastor; hymn, All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name; anthem, Hark, Hark My Soul; alto solo, Mrs. A. M. Colville; soprano solo and obligato, Miss B. Hope; New Testament lesson; hymn, O God Our Help in Ages Past; unveiling of the honor roll by Rev. R. R. McMath who spoke with deep feeling of the boys who gave so much and so willingly and counted not the cost. As Mr. McMath read the roll, David Preston and Stuart Toole inserted a small flag for each name in places prepared for them before the roll. In the centre, in the place of greatest honor and remembrance, was inserted a small white, wooden cross for the boy who made the supreme sacrifice.

The calling of the roll was followed by a moment of silent remembrance and prayer.

A duet, Gounod's Forever With the Lord, was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Colville.

The offering followed with prayer by Mr. McMath, after which he introduced the speaker, Rev. Mr. Smith, Presbyterian church, Newmarket. Mr. Smith spoke of the gallantry of the Canadians who were ready, even at the expense of what youth holds dear—life—to battle with the hydra-headed monster of evil let loose in the world by Germany and Japan and to win in the name of God and country.

The musical part of the service was under the direction of Mrs. Geo. Woods, pianist, and A. M. Colville, choirmaster. The hymn, Peace, Perfect Peace, and the benediction followed and another anniversary passed into history.

adoption of the commandments for daily guidance may satisfy the desire for "hearing the words of Jehovah."

Daniel Webster, in dedicating the Bunker Hill Monument, spoke of an "elevated and improved future" in which there should rise from every youthful heart the ejaculation "Thank God, I—I also—am an American."

In the commandments we have the principles out of which can grow the ejaculation: "Thank God, I—I also am a Christian." The world always needs the "electric eye" of the spirit to be found in these commandments.

IS THAT THE REASON?

Women, it seems, are more fascinated by horrors than men, which may account for their marrying some of them.

OTTAWA LETTER

by
"Jack" Smith, M.P.,
North York

Prime Minister King left this week for Paris where he will attend the peace conference. He was accompanied by Hon. Brooke Claxton and several top-ranking officials from the department of external affairs. This conference will consider terms of peace with Italy, Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland, and while it was hoped it would be a conference for drafting terms with all nations, it is at least a start and an encouraging sign. Here it is felt that we cannot start too soon on the big task of rebuilding the war-torn world.

In announcing the conference, the prime minister said: "The Paris conference is not to be confused with a peace conference to determine the final settlement with respect to Germany. While the Paris conference is of importance in what it may accomplish in creating a more peaceful atmosphere in Europe, it will be concerned neither with the treaties of peace with the major enemy countries, Germany and Japan, nor with international problems as a whole, such as are the concern of the United Nations. The plans for a conference respecting Germany and the date on which it may be held have still to be determined. It is not possible at the moment even to suggest a probable date. Nor, as I have said, will the conference which meets in Paris on July 29 be concerned, directly or indirectly, with the conference which presumably will be held ere long with respect to Japan and Pacific questions."

"Although this is still one world, and its peace is indivisible, it is apparent that some countries are much more closely and directly concerned than others with the specific solutions of questions of territorial boundaries, population transfers, war damage, indemnities, and so on. Such will be the class or kind of subject to be discussed at the forthcoming Paris conference. They obviously are of primary interest to the European countries. In these circumstances, Canada's principal interest and duty will, it seems to me, lie in helping the countries more directly concerned to work out agreed solutions which are fair and will be likely to endure. Our national interest is to see that, as far as possible, the peace treaties are based upon broad and enduring principles of justice and equity. Canada is not seeking territory or reparations, but we do want a lasting peace."

The finance minister, Hon. James L. Isley, will represent Canada at the U.N.R.R.A. meeting in Geneva, which opens August 5. During the absence of Mr. King and Mr. Isley, the minister of justice, Hon. L. S. St. Laurent, will be acting minister and Hon. D. C. Abbott will be acting minister of finance.

It has not been an eventful week in parliament as much of it was taken up in budget debate. Some criticism was forthcoming from opposition parties but much of it was inconsistent and little was definite or constructive. Opposition members deplored the fact that income tax reductions were not greater and, in the next half hour, advocated policies which would mean increased expenditures. Criticism that expenditures should be reduced was seldom followed up by direct reference as to just where and when it would be done. One exception might be that directed at the civil service. Members of government and opposition, I think, agree that there must be a substantial reduction in civil service personnel. I am confident that it will be forthcoming this year. Anyway, the budget carried by a substantial majority and, when all the shouting died away, there was a general agreement that, despite debate, Canada is in pretty good shape, and is without doubt the best place in all the world in which to live today.

In comparison to some of the gloomy things said about Canada, and in the face of the pressing problems which beset us, it is interesting and heartening to keep in mind the remarks made in the budget debate by Hon. Brooke Claxton, minister of health. Mr. Claxton said: "The production of peace-time food in Canada is at an all-time high. We are employing 629,000 people than in 1939, more people than ever before in peace time. The Canadian farmer and wage earners are getting more money than ever before in peace time."

"We have today the highest production, the highest employment and the highest national income we ever had in Canada in peace time; the savings of individual Canadians have tripled since 1939 and are at an all-time high. On the other side, debts shown by 30 lending companies have been reduced from $169 million to $66 million between the years 1937 and 1939, and it is estimated that during the last six years the total farm debt has been reduced by something over $400 million."

"The ratio of net debt charge to the national income has decreased since 1938 less than in the United States or in the United Kingdom. I think this is one of the most objective and important evidences of the excellent way in which the economy has been managed."

"The rates of cuts in taxes from their wartime high to greater in Canada than in the United States, the United Kingdom, Australia or New Zealand." "Tax exemptions in Canada are higher for both single and married taxpayers than in the countries where they have governments, higher than in the United Kingdom, higher than in Australia, even after the announced Friday, or in New Zealand; they are also higher than in the United States, with the further exemptions which will be made effective from January 1, 1947, they will be very much higher than in those countries."

"Prices have been more effectively controlled than in any country; Canadian money is as strong as that of any country which fought in the war; the Canadian government has fewer civil servants per capita than the governments of either the United Kingdom or the United States."

"Canada's veterans' legislation leads the world; Canada's work in international co-operation has given her a reputation second to no country in the field; before has Canada's reputation for sound, progressive government and for successful management of her economy rise so high among other nations."

North York housewives will be able to buy much more canned salmon next year. Hon. E. C. Bridges, minister of fisheries, announced this week in the House that under plans which have now been worked out for the allocation of Canada's fish production of canned fish, 20,000 cases of British Columbia canned salmon, or 240,000 pounds, will be made available to Canadian consumers this year's pack. This is an increase of 200,000 cases, or 60 percent, over the domestic allocation from the 1945 salmon pack. In making this increase in domestic allocation, Canada has the concurrence of the United Nations emergency food council, which has taken the place of the combined food board.

"It will be recalled that during the war years, Canada sent nearly all its canned salmon overseas to help meet the needs of food needs there. This year, however, it will be possible to take care of a much greater part of the domestic demand, and at the same time to send something more than half a million cases a year, but the quantity will at least be well up to the usual requirements, and, as I have said, it is a much larger supply than has been available to Canadian consumers in any recent year."

"Perhaps I should add a reminder that naturally it will be some months yet before this year's domestic allocation for salmon to market in volume and value is the merchants' shelves. The way on the Pacific coast, it is a midsummer and on into the autumn that the big production takes place."

The session drags on despite efforts to speed up the business of the House. Morning sessions are now being held, but it looks now as if we will be in Ottawa until mid-August.

Woodbridge, the current leaders of the North York lacrosse circuit, and, on recent showings, including a 12-6 win over Combines last week at home, now installed as favorites for the group, will be in Aurora on Friday evening and unless we miss our guess, one of the biggest crowds of the year will be on hand. A lay-off of two weeks of the big boys at Aurora has produced numerous inquiries as to games and it's time some of the folks up Newmarket and Bradford way were taking in these classics. The lacrosse being played is mighty good and there's never a dull moment.

Bill Cox, sensational young netminder of the Woodbridge team, made the headlines last week and the record books, too, for he scored a goal against Gordy Smith of Combines. Cox ran out of his goal and whipped a long pass up the floor to his homes, which missed its mark, but took a dirty hop and flipped into the opposing goal to flash the red light. That comes under the "man bites dog" class.

Orchids to Aurora kids, who made their debut before a handful of fans last Friday and beat Maple midgets 5-2. The Aurora youngsters looked mighty smart in their new sweaters and despite the fact they only had eight men and were playing their first game, they had an edge all the way.

Bill Patrick looked just as good as his dad did when he was breaking into the game, whipping home three smart goals with opponents draped on his shoulders. The rest of the youngsters were as good as the best of their opponents, who included two boys with intermediate experience, Jimmy Jones and bespectacled Ken White. Maple had previously beaten Woodbridge and tied Richmond Hill. Combines midgets in their first appearance doubled the score on the Hill kids. That win should do a lot to boost the game locally and the kids deserve some support from the Aurora fans. They won't win them all of course, but they can be depended upon to produce some stirring, real honest-to-goodness thrills before the season's over. Watch for the schedule.

Al Orr, the galloping ghost of the Maple defence and, in our opinion, one of the top performers in the circuit, won himself a trip to New York in Junior Farmer competition recently. The Orr family is really prominent in youthful-agricultural circles. Gordy Orr, a brother, who also plays a nice brand of lacrosse, is a past president of the York County Junior Farmers and Orphie Orr, a sister, is one of the best known female members of the young farmers' group. They had the misfortune of seeing the family barn burn down a few weeks ago.

While on the subject, lacrosse seems to be one game farm youngsters can take to without their urban cousins having an advantage ab initio and about a good 65 percent of the boys playing in the North York league are dirt farmers.

By the way, Charlie Rowntree, president of the lacrosse league and no stranger to these parts, and his brother, Russell Rowntree, who masterminds Woodbridge, have hit upon a jackpot idea which looks like returning some nice bundles of happy cabbage for hard work. The Rowntree boys have a new-fangled aromatic haybaler, one of four of its kind in Ontario, which cost in four figures but really does a swell job and with factory capacity too. Better get those orders in fast folks, for the duo are going day and night, too, if necessary to keep pace with the demand. It couldn't happen to two better lads either.

Huntsville phoned last week and have booked Combines to appear in feature wind-up to their big Lions carnival on civic holiday. They'll play a return game here and Midland and the Bines are still negotiating for a series. It's settled all but the dates.

Civic Holiday, August 5, is the day Mount Albert Canadian Legion have booked for their first annual field day. A high class program of softball, horse-shoes, tug-of-war and other features have been booked and if you hear a swish and see a cloud of dust, it's not Superman in action but our old palsy-walsy Howard Morton, in action. "Mort" is the convenor of the day and he's figuring on around 5,000 folks coming to the Mount for the occasion. Could be too. Meantime book the fifth as a surefire date.

Wedding bells in recent weeks have chimed or tolled (call it which you like), for some well-known athletes. Wes Niles, ye olde softball hurler and holder of the M.C. too, middle-aided it with Miss Irene Parks of Newmarket. Bruce Wark, husky defence player of Combines, sniffed orange blossoms with Miss Florence Hobday, Richvale, sister of Jack Hobday, another lacrosse stalwart. The couple didn't worry about the 13th as a jinx and "Mrs." has given the green light for more lacrosse. Bob Hills, Aurora softballer, pulled a swifty on his Aurora pals by tying the knot quietly last Saturday with Miss Bertha MacMain, Toronto, former Aurora gal. We forgot to extend best wishes earlier to the former Moss Doane, Newmarket, one of the district's best girl softballers, who became Mrs. Dan Kenny on June 28, and hasten to do so now. There's plenty more knot-tying events booked for the next few weeks too.

Time marches on and finally the other day we grabbed a bit of info about Johnny Clark, who came down from the north to play hockey for Aurora in those never-to-be-forgotten years when Aurora was matching wits with Newmarket on the hockey ice lanes, unsuccessfully, we must admit (stop chuckling Smith). Clark was a mighty fine performer although a bit inclined to loaf and could have gone a piece in the winter sport if he had so decided. Well, Clark is in his hometown, Smooth Rock Falls, employed as accountant in a paper mill, married with two fine youngsters and hasn't played hockey for several years.

Ross Tunbridge, who captained Aurora junior hockey team for two years in the 40's and then enlisted and served overseas, after coming of age, is taking a pre-university course at rehab school in Toronto and hopes to enter Toronto varsity in the fall. Ross was a good pro prospect when he enlisted, but has no illusions along those lines now and while he may turn out for the Varsity Blues, it's text books preferred.

John Stuart, who so far has spent most of his hobby time with the gee-gees, although he did back Young Leafs in juvenile hockey two years ago, is one of the angels of Oakwood Indians in the O.R.F.U. and the tribesmen who have been orphans of the storm for several years are blossoming out like Cinderella following the glass slipper episode.

Andy Davis, yes, Andy of Newmarket Redmen fame, is another one of the "honorary" members of the club and Andy likes a winner, as you all know. Denton Massey is another. The Indians, with financial worries over, should really be able to go to town this season. Jimmy Cummings, former Aurora junior hockeyist who has returned from Ottawa Trojans and was bound for Indians again, is said to have signed on the dotted for Toronto Argos and if so, he'll really get a chance to show his true worth.

Speaking of Argos, Major Gerry Goodman, Aurora, former sports officer at Camp Borden, is readying a lallapalooza, de luxe program for the double blue, which will have your eyes popping when it hits the streets in a few weeks.

Norm Heise (and A. P. Heise, too) was all smiles last week. Willieglivt, the Heise filly who showed such promise last year and hasn't hit the finish in front all year, despite three or four second-best efforts, finally captured a feature three-year-old race at Fort Erie against a field that included all the smart ones except Kingarvie and Blue-sweep. Didn't pay too much but it was a nice onion for the fall and fast time too.

Headed for the baseball school in August conducted by the Toronto Leafs are a quartet of youthful Newmarket baseballers who should get more than a passing look-see if they aren't too jittery. Ken Broughton, burly pitching prospect, Jim Rutledge and Red Palmateer, the infield flashes, and Tommy Dales, who can play any place but behind the bat equally well, make up the foursome and Manager George Haskett won't have to be ashamed of his representatives.

Intermediate baseball is due to appear in the district next year. (Page 4, Col. 3)

according to Leonard Simmons of Aurora. Len doesn't figure Aurora is ripe for the idea as yet, with which we heartily agree, but Stouffville, with fellows like Earl Cook, former Toronto Leafs hurler, Dinty Hodgins, Ken Laushaway, Reg Button, Ross Wideman and others, who formerly played intermediate, plus the better junior players available, want to move up and Newmarket is definitely interested, too, with some of the stars of yesteryear ready to stage a comeback and bolster the present junior team.

Richmond Hill will probably fall in line. Uxbridge, Port Perry and several teams over in Ontario county are said to be ready to go again also. With a two-group circuit already composing the tri-county circuit, it might well blossom out into a pretty compact four-group league, pretentious enough, with the winner going into the O.B.A. B series away down in the semi-finals.

It's quite a jump from kid baseball to the older series and a good many of the boys could stand another year at least in lower company. Unless the present minor series, say midget or bantam, is continued, the same fate that overtook baseball in the past in these parts is sure to follow.

Each intermediate club should be made to sponsor a minor club to assure the continuance of the game. There's no doubt about it that the scarcity of playing fields, the cost of equipment and the lack of personnel for leadership, under present conditions at least, make two teams for league competition the maximum amount that can be accommodated in the district towns.

A hand for the "Lemonville Farmer" who gave the fans a treat last week as he pitched for Stouffville intermediates against Newmarket juniors. Earl Cook didn't work too hard, Newmarket leading 3-1 at one stage, but when the chips were down he displayed his stuff, striking out the last seven batters to face him. It was his first mound effort in close to two years, too. After the game was over, he quietly took Lefty Gibson, Tommy Dales and Ken Broughton aside and proceeded to show them the fine points of mound work, particularly the footwork, and what to do with men on bases.

Ike Harper of Markham-Ballantyne hockey fame, coach of Stouffville's junior C hockey team, handled the catching duties for Cook the last four innings and turned in a good show.

George Haskett finally got into action this year with his pets. Journeying to Beeton on Saturday with only nine players, "Mr. Frisch" had to leave the bench when Larry Cotton suffered a leg injury, and from press dispatches he did O.K. Nothing like having the coach show you how it should be done. Newmarket took the Beeton kids apart, winning 14-5, with plenty to spare. Rain washed out the return game with Stouffville intermediates last Friday but the Newmarket juniors are keen to get their chance at Cookie again before the season ends.

North York play-offs are at hand. On Monday it was announced that Stouffville and Newmarket would meet in a two-game series, with Aurora drawing Milliken. Oddly enough, both brackets find the two opponents each defeating the other team at home. The midget schedule won't get underway until next week, with the big game to decide first place between the Hill and Aurora washed out on Monday. The Hill, Aurora, Stouffville and Markham have qualified for the playdowns.

The series, while it will decide in both cases the league championship, will not decide who will be the O.B.A. standard-bearers. From the Yonge group, by mutual agreement at the start of the season, Newmarket will go into the O.B.A. junior play-offs and Aurora will go into the midget play-offs regardless of the ultimate outcome.

At the same time, from the eastern section of the group, Stouffville and Milliken will send in teams to the O.B.A. play-downs. It's supposed to be Stouffville in junior and Milliken in midget, but it's not all clear yet and may be ultimately reversed with Milliken taking on the junior role.

The four teams will be allowed to get reinforcements for their teams and will likely meet each other in the first round. With Winger, the good catcher of the Newmarket team, said to be heading west, George Haskett will likely seek the services of Loring Doollittle. There's no secret either that Haskett figures Don Little of the Hill, along with Herb Rose and Gar Doollittle of the Aurora club wouldn't hurt his team's chances in the least.

By the same token, Mac Clement, the sturdy Hill catcher, would look pretty good behind the plate for Aurora midgets, allowing Jim McDonald a hard hitter to take an outfield spot. Jack Atkinson, Sylvia Steffen and Norm Stenden from the Hill and Laurie Thoms from Newmarket wouldn't weaken the Simmons stars either. Stouffville and Milliken can bolster their weak spots with players from other clubs, too. In fact, the drawing of players from other clubs will benefit the eastern section clubs more than it will Aurora and Newmarket, who could stand pat on their present line-ups if they weren't thinking of a round or two away. The two sets of series promise to provide plenty of fuel for the controversial stove, which will soon be boiling over as the play-off trail hoves in sight.

Herb Holman was ready last week to enter Aurora softballs in the O.A.S.A. C play-offs but whether or not it will be allowed is not as yet known. It seems now that George Kelson of Thornhill entered the league as a group in the Ontario Association and if so there'll only be a C and B representative, Newmarket automatically taking B by virtue of population and the C series to be decided on its merits. The Aurora boys are still seeking entry and with one or two players added might make a fair show of things.

Red Laking, who in pre-war days was the top ranking outfielder of the York-Simcoe league, finished the season in fourth spot in the Centre Simcoe batting averages with a mark of .418, leading the league in hits and runs. Hasn't lost much of his old class either.

Steve Hines, another veteran performer who is no stranger in these parts, was in the third slot just above him with .429. That's hitting in any man's league and Steve rolls on like Old Man River.

Wes Perry, former hurler for Queen's Yorks in the Aurora town league, another veteran performer, had the best pitching average for the league-leading Orphans with four runs and one loss and an average of 7.2 hits per nine-inning game.

Morley Schandlen, Midhurst, another veteran from away back, was in second place with 4-2 in games and the second best average in hits. Nice going boys.

Richmond Hill is starting to play girls' softball, too late for the regular league now in action, but they'll be available for some exhibition games soon. Quite a bit of interest being shown under the auspices of the village Youth Council.

Marj McCannan got a big thrill out of performing against the World Champions Jax team from New Orleans at Maple Leaf stadium this week. The Newmarket girl made a nice showing too. Right now she's hitting her regular stride at Sunnyside.

Schomberg fans are having quite an argument as to the respective merits of Elgin Hastings' Red Shirts and Cliff Graham's Blue Shirts, who are the finalists in the South Simcoe girls' softball loop. The Reds had the best record over the season but there's no telling what can happen. Not bad for a place the size of the "Berg" having two clubs. United they could hold their own with either Aurora or Newmarket.

Aurora trounced the Blues earlier in the year but divided it's a different story. Makes for plenty of excitement though. Bill Brendon's men's club is travelling at a nice clip too and have reached the finals in the men's section. The second series of the North Yonge league is due to start soon and this is the half where Aurora has to go to town. There is no schedule out yet, but it'll be announced soon.

KETTLEBY HEACOCK-LEPARD RITES SATURDAY

A quiet wedding was solemnized in the United church parsonage, Saturday afternoon, July 20, by Rev. C. E. Cragg when Lorna Eulene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lepard, was united in marriage to Earl Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Heacock.

The bride wore white eyelet embroidered sheer with a corsage of red roses.

Miss Mae McCluskie, maid of honor, wore green eyelet embroidered sheer with corsage of roses. Mr. Gordon McQuarrie, King, was best man.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother received in a pale blue dress and was assisted by the groom's mother in mauve. The couple left by motor to Manitoulin Island and points north.

NURSERY RHYMES

By GOLDEN GLOW

As perhaps you all know by now, this is one of my favorite topics—nursery rhymes, and trying to see just how they came to be written. The particular one I have in mind this time is called:

My Nut Tree
I had a little nut tree,
Nothing would it bear
But a silver nutmeg
And a golden pear.
The king of Spain's daughter
Came to visit me
And all for the sake
Of my little nut tree
I skipped over water,
I danced over sea
And all the birds in the air
Couldn't catch me.

I have always felt that Mother Goose, to whom are attributed so many of our good old nursery rhymes, was simply a house mother inventing rhymes to amuse and entertain her children
as she worked round her kitchen or elsewhere, and it was something distinctly connected with her work that inspired the certain rhyme of the minute.

For instance, Humpty-Dumpty was in all probability composed as the children sat at the breakfast table eating a morning egg,
and to stretch our imagination farther, perhaps an egg fell and was broken before it could be dropped in the saucepan to cook.

Or the one about Simple Simon fishing in his mother's pail
—maybe his dad had gone fishing and he wanted to go along but had to stay and do his fishing at home! Pat a cake, pat a cake, baker's man, was likely composed for a baby, while the mother was making hot biscuits or cookies. Old Mother Hubbard, who couldn't find a bone for her dog and so on, and on!

Well, this one I have in mind today recalls the scarcity of spice all during wartime, and the synthetic substitutes we were offered in their place. The old rhyme, "What are little girls made of? Sugar and spice and everything nice—that's what little girls are made of."

Yes, "spice," what a world of goodies that one small word can conjure up! Christmas cake, mince pie, pickles, chili sauce and heaps of other delectable things to eat.

In King Solomon's day, when the Queen of Sheba came to visit him, nearly 3,000 years ago, spices were rated with silver and gold in tributes paid to the king. But spices do not stop with Solomon, they have played an important part in international trade ever since.

Spices even played an important part in the discovery of America, for Christopher Columbus was looking for the spice islands, the East Indies, when he found the Bahamas. The little rhyme mentions nutmeg—it is one of the aromatic spices which include cinnamon and allspice and cloves. The pungent ones are those that bite your tongue, you learn about them in botany class at high school, like pepper and mustard and ginger and horseradish too!

Yes, I think that was how many of our nursery rhymes came to be written—mothers doing their daily work in their kitchen and entertaining their children at the same time.

POWER GOES OFF IN FRIDAY STORM

The power went off in Newmarket around 5.30 p.m. Friday during a heavy rain storm.
Angus Morrison, water and light superintendent for Newmarket, said that the cause was lightning splitting insulators in the vicinity of Thornhill. The power was off until after 8 p.m.

A tree was knocked down
across the wires on Strigley St.
by the violence of the storm but the power was off at the time and town men had the wires repaired before the main breaks were fixed.

A CYNICAL NOTE

A marriage expert says that men like to marry girls "whose knowledge is less than theirs."
This undoubtedly explains why a lot of men are bachelors.

LEAGUE STANDING
Final standing in the junior series of North York Lions baseball league:

	W	L	Pts.
Milliken	8	2	16
Newmarket	7	3	14
Aurora	6	4	12
Stouffville	4	6	8
Richmond Hill	3	7	6

KENNETH PONTING WEDS IN OTTAWA

A pretty wedding took place in McKay United church, Ottawa, on Wednesday, July 3, when June Margaret, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. A. Nicholls, Ottawa, became the bride of Kenneth Ponting, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.
E. Ponting, Newmarket. Rev. A.
I. Higgins, Ottawa, officiated and Mr. C. Skuce played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage
by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white sheer with long veil which fell from a wreath of flowers. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and pink carnations. Miss Eileen McCann, bridesmaid, chose a floor-length gown of turquoise net and carried a colonial bouquet of Talisman roses.

Stewart Dow, cousin of the groom, was best man.

The reception was held at the bride's home following the ceremony. The bride's mother wore a blue dress with white accessories and the groom's mother wore a grey dress with black accessories.

For a motor trip to New York City the bride chose a green silk jersey dress with white accessories.

They are residing at 38 Millard Ave., Newmarket.

By GEORGE HASKETT

Behind the steady pitching of Newmarket's ace right hander, Ken Broughton, the local junior ball club humbled the league-leading Milliken club 14-3 at Pantry Park on Thursday. It was the second loss of the season for the visitors. The victory assured the locals of second place in the league standing and demonstrated that the Redmen will have to be reckoned with when the championships are being handed out in the North York Lions league.

The Redmen led off with five runs in the opener, four in the second to make the verdict sure from the start. Jim "Pee Wee" Rutledge hammered out the first homer of the season when he poled out a 250-footer, over the centre field fence in the fifth with one mate aboard. Ken Thoms smashed out two long doubles. Bill Johnston was on a batting spree with three singles and a walk to his credit, while every man of the club had at least one hit. Tommy Dales took over the first base chore
and was in top form all the way.

In all, the Redmen hammered
the offerings of Orval Rouse hard throughout and had him out of the box in the fourth. It was the first time the highly rated Rouse had been shelved from the mound in ten games. Ken Broughton was never in trouble
after the first innings when Milliken opened with two runs on Nicholson's triple, Minton and Rouse's singles. The other Milliken counter came in the fourth, Jewett doubling followed by Gough's single.

BEETON TUMBLED 14-5 IN EXHIBITION TILT

Newmarket junior ball club chalked up another win in an exhibition game at Beeton Saturday, vanquishing the newly formed Beeton team 14-5.

Don Brown, starry centrefielder of canaltown, deserted the pasture to take over the pitching chores for the night and hung up a victory in his first attempt. Backing up Brown's pitching effort, his mates walloped out 12 solid hits, left-fielder Bob Walker coming through with an extra base clout
in the third with a long triple.

RECALLS OPEN VOTE IN GOOD OLD DAYS

R. F. Chapman, who left Newmarket 65 years ago to farm in the west, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Daniel Hiltz, Newmarket,
this week. Mr. Chapman is now living in Minga, Manitoba, about 175 miles south-west of Winnipeg. While here, Mr. Chapman is locating old friends and talking over the good old days.

Mr. Chapman remembered one incident from his youth in Newmarket which still gives him many a chuckle. In 1878, there was still open voting in Newmarket and Mr. Chapman recalls hiding in a hayloft with a friend watching the ballots being marked. According to Mr. Chapman, the procedure was for the returning officer to mark
the ballot as the voter requested.

Mr. Chapman drove to Newmarket from the west with his grandson, by way of United States. They intend to return by driving through northern Ontario. He said that crop prospects in his neighborhood,
where there is mixed farming,
are good. "There won't be a bumper crop," he said, "but there will be good crops."

BORN IN NEWMARKET, W. H. ROGERS DIES

Walter Harvey Rogers, 6135
Drexel Ave., Chicago, died in the Woodlawn hospital in Chicago, July 13, following a stroke.
He had been ill for six months.

Born in Newmarket July 19, 1866, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Asa Rogers, he married Minnie Gallagher in 1907. She predeceased him in the spring of 1925. He married Ethel Adeline Munro in October, 1926, and she survives him.

Active in real estate business,
Mr. Rogers was a member of the Methodist church. A temperance worker, he was also a member of the Woodlawn Park Masonic Lodge.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two sisters, Minnie Crane, Florida, and Edith Reid, Toronto. Funeral services were conducted by the Masonic Lodge
July 17 and interment was in Oakwood cemetery, Chicago.

Fire In Auto Causes Excitement On Main St.

There was considerable excitement on Main St. Friday afternoon when a fire broke out in the hood of a car owned by Tom Heiff, of the White House restaurant. The fire was put out by Main St. citizens who brought fire extinguishers from their stores. First to the scene was Ernest Deavitt, a driver for Geer and Byers, who threw open the hood of the car and turned his fire extinguisher on the blaze. W. H. Bell and R. C.
Morrison also brought fire extinguishers into play. A salesman for a fire extinguisher firm was through Newmarket last week and the small fire enabled the purchasers of his product to test its worth. Newmarket firemen answered the call.

Pasture Management in Fall

PASTURE is an important crop and repays care during late Fall months. Grazing shouldn't be overdone, experts say. Droppings should be spread and harrowing is recommended. Pasture, eaten short, benefits from a light top dressing of manure. Fertilizer applied in October encourages quick Fall growth which holds snow and ensures earlier Spring growth.

Pasture is the A, B, C of farming. There are other more difficult problems that affect the farmer's living. Your agricultural college or experimental station can help you solve yours and get more from your land . . . a service available for the asking.

ACT QUICKLY WHEN
TRUCK CATCHES ON FIRE

A truck carrying men to work, owned by Sydney Goodwin, Holland Landing, caught fire at Yonge and Wellington Sts. early Saturday morning. The truck, loaded with a quantity of gasoline, burst into flames, and the flames quickly spread to the engine. The truck was quickly put out by the fire department. One workman sustained a burn on his hand. The fire was quickly put out by the fire department. The truck was quickly put out by the fire department. Aurora Takes Thornhill
Team To Camp, 10-2

Turning in one of their best games of the season and paced by Will White's four hits, Aurora softballers rode roughshod over Thornhill on Tuesday night to take a 10-2 verdict. Ed Tidman on the mound for the locals allowed but two hits and received good support except for a shut-out but an error by Castle spoiled the show as Thornhill went for two runs in the fifth.

Nels Findlay was no mystery for the home club, who came out of a batting slump to crack out 11 safeties. Canning and White both hit triples. By daring base-running White came all the way around in the first on a single as the Thornhill infield tumbled.

MacDonald, in right field, made three sparkling catches for Aurora and in addition batted for two sizzling hits. Case was strong behind the bat and Yake, while failing to get a safety, was strong at first.

Echlin and Redman were the pick of the visitors. Aurora: Canning, MacDonald, White, Yake, Case, Emmons, McCarty, Castle, Tidman. Thornhill: Redman, Echlin, Scott Findlay, Hodgson, Magnus, Meyers, Wice, Lake. Umpires: Sharpless and Hulce.

RETIRE AFTER 32 YEARS

Lindsay Obee has retired after 32 years of service with the T. Sman Shoe Co. Mr. Obee was presented with a gold watch by the company and a signal ring by fellow employees.

EMPLOYE VETERAN

Miss Ruth Hoover of Nobleton, who served for two years with the Wrens from Halifax to Vancouver, has been appointed stenographer for the township of King offices.

GIRLS AT CAMP

Fourteen Aurora girls are enjoying the North York intermediate girls' camp at Camp Ashbury, Lake Simcoe. They are: Anne MacRae, Hilma Davies, Jean Willson, Caroline and Lois Morrison, Lois Moran, Mary Stocks, Margaret Brooks, Jane Hodgkinson, Jane Davidson, Shirley Holman, Florence Fisher, Yvonne Squibb, Peggy Jones.

PURCHASE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. William Watson have purchased the Auburn residence on Bercy St.

MOUNT ALBERT

The July meeting of the Mount Albert Women's Institute was held at Mrs. Carmen Rollins' cottage, Glen Sibbald Beach, with an attendance of 36 ladies and 24 children. It was decided to donate $10 to the Children's Aid Society. The members are adopting a soldier from Christie Street hospital, who hasn't any family, corresponding with him regularly and remembering him on birthdays, Christmas, etc.

YOU'LL FIND 'EM

The Census Bureau reports 3,000,000 women have disappeared from the labor market since war's end. The bureau admits it doesn't know where they went. That's easy. Look in those nylon lines.

TOO EASILY

Once more we're finding out that the easiest thing to grow in the garden is tired.

EXPECT NIGHT PLAY
AT AURORA COURTS

Lights for night play are expected to be turned on this week at the Aurora Tennis club, and three courts will be ready for daylight play and two for night. It has been an uphill fight to bring tennis back to Aurora and the condition of the courts and the increasing membership are gratifying to those who have visited the club.

On Saturday, Keith Davis of Newmarket was on hand and showed the rudiments of the game to a group of younger players as well as recalling to the minds of some of the more experienced players the fundamentals of the game. He will be present from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. again next Saturday and each succeeding Saturday to give the benefit of his experience on the courts.

The membership committee consists of: Warren Barnard, Bill Stephens, Pat Davies, Alf Cooper and Betty Boulding.

RUTH WALKER HAS
CHURCH WEDDING

A pretty wedding took place amid a setting of mixed summer flowers at Aurora United church on Saturday when Mary Ruth Walker, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. George Walker, Catharine Ave., became the bride of Victor R. Doner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Doner, Newmarket. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Roy F. Hicks. Miss Doris Borden, Oakville, the bride's cousin, presided at the organ and Miss Gerry Henry, Newmarket, the groom's cousin, was soloist. Miss Henry sang, "I'll Walk Beside You before the ceremony and O Perfect Love while the register was being signed.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in white organza brocaded in lily-of-the-valley and lovers' knots, with a fingertip veil falling from a crest of ostrich tips. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of red roses and baby's breath. Miss Barbara Walker, Port Arthur, was her sister's bridesmaid, wearing pale blue brocaded organza. Her flowers were pink roses. Mrs. Milton Longfield, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor in pale green brocaded taffeta. Her flowers were pink roses.

Milton Longfield was best man. The ushers were Robert Walker and Alvin Doner.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The groom's mother received in pale green net with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Walker, the bride's mother, wore navy blue sheer with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Frank Cook, Toronto, and Miss Edythe Turp poured tea. Guests were present from Toronto, Oakville, Newmarket and other points, including the bride's grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Walker, Toronto.

For travelling the bride wore a frock of pink eyelet embroidery with white accessories. Following a honeymoon at Lake Simcoe and points north, the young couple will reside in Toronto.

FROLIC JULY 31

The Aurora Lions club will hold its third annual carnival and street dance in Aurora on Wednesday, July 31. The committee in charge, with its eyes bent on augmenting the club's welfare fund, has left no stone unturned to provide a big series of midway and carnival games. The dance is expected to draw a monster crowd.

The committee has all arrangements well in hand and everyone attending is assured of a bang-up evening.

GIVE PRIZES
AS VACATION
SCHOOL ENDS

Trinity Anglican church vacation school came to a close on Friday. There were over 100 students registered and 20 qualified for prizes which were presented for perfect attendance by L. C. Lee. The staff this year consisted of Mrs. Wilfred Adams, Mrs. R. K. Perdue, Mrs. David Judd, Dr. S. Hewitt, Mrs. Robert Hodgkinson, Mrs. H. Proctor, Mrs. William Trent, Mrs. Jasper Smith and Mrs. William Waite.

Assistants who were presented with awards for their services were: June Adams, Betty Boulding, Joan Bradbury, Beth Brodie, Margaret Brooks, Ruth Corbett, Jane Davidson, Pat Davies, Eldred Ellis, Norma Hickson, Jane Hodgkinson, Peggy Jones and Marie Rose.

Rev. R. K. Perdue was chairman and 60 adults enjoyed the games, skits, musical numbers and display of work. Prizes for examinations in church knowledge went to John Hodgkinson, Fred White, Mary Adams, Mary Stocks and Mary Corbett.

Tea and refreshments on the rectory lawn brought the event to a close.

Start Collecting Now,
Says Salvage Chairman

"Boys and girls should start saving paper for salvage now," Frank Barnes, chairman of the Aurora Board of Trade paper salvage campaign, said last Saturday.

"The first of the new contests will start in September," he said, "and we are hoping to exceed the last contest. There is still a great need and a good market for paper, and the proceeds will go towards the board's community site project. Those who are intending to enter can secure quite a bit of paper now, or get their friends to do so."

Full details will be announced in late August.

Midgets Take First Tilt
Against Maple By 5-2

Despite the fact they were outnumbered almost two to one, and were playing their first game as against Maple midgets' third effort, Aurora midget lacrosse team took a 5-2 decision over Maple in a rugged game at Aurora arena on Friday evening. The power being off, the game didn't get underway until close to 9 p.m. and only a handful of fans were on hand to see the contest which was played with no admission charge.

The Aurora youngsters were never headed, leading 2-1 at the end of the first period, 3-2 at the end of the second period, and 5-2 at the end of the third when the

TOMMY SPENCE WINS
GEO. LEACOCK TROPHY

Tommy Spence is the new holder of the George Leacock trophy at the Highlands Golf club. The Aurora garageman defeated Norm Johnson three up and two to play in the handicap competition on Sunday. Mr. Spence went the 18 holes in an even 80, while Johnson took 87. En route to the finals, Mr. Spence disposed of Doug Nisbet, Cyril Hamlin and Earl Rose.

It will be Aurora vs. Newmarket in the semi-finals of the Jarvis Shield for the club scratch championship. In one bracket, Larry Molyneux, of 1945 champion, meets Bill Fry, D.F.C., returning to the game after a long lay-off. In the other half, Bill Boaks, who has held the club title more than any other member, seeks to renew his 1944 victory at the expense of Herbie Cain, master of the ice lanes.

LEARNED TRADE HERE,
GEO. R. CHERRY DIES

George R. Cherry, merchant prince of the New England States, and former district resident, died at New Bedford, Mass., last Sunday.

Mr. Cherry, who was 72, was born at Richmond Hill and resided at Gormley for some years with his father, the late Joseph Cherry, Sr. He received his early training in dry-goods and groceries at the Grennan and Webb store in Aurora, on the present site of the Aurora General store, moving to the United States to enter the ladies' wear business with his brother, the late William Cherry, and later being joined by Mr. Webb.

He had been in business in the U.S.A. for 48 years and was rated as one of the wealthiest men of his city. In 1938 he served as a member of a committee of five which settled the big textile strike in the New England States.

He is survived by three brothers, John, Willoughdale, Oliver, Fall River, Mass., and Charles R., Toronto, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Haywood, New Bedford, Mass.

W. D. CLAPPER DIES,
ONCE LACROSSE COACH

Funeral services were held at Hastings on Tuesday for William Daniel ("Bill") Clapper, a former Aurora and Newmarket resident, one-time lacrosse star and father of Aubrey ("Dit") Clapper, coach of the Boston Bruins.

Mr. Clapper was in his 70th year and had been in poor health the past few years. In the early 20's, Mr. Clapper was employed with the Collis Leather Co., and coached the Aurora lacrosse teams.

He is survived by three sons, Donald, Windsor, Bruce, Toronto, and Aubrey, Peterborough, and two daughters, Mrs. T. Ivey (Marion), Toronto, and Mrs. S. Barr (Jean), Hastings. Interment was at Trent Valley cemetery, Hastings.

TO RAISE FUNDS

Members of the Parochial Guild of Trinity Anglican church are providing funds for the complete re-decoration of the interior of the church which is this year celebrating its 100th birthday. The guild met on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Eva Lemon.

EXTEND SEWER

On Thursday, the Aurora town council approved an extension of the present sewer on Tyler St. to meet the new diversion of the Tannery Creek. The old storm sewer was covered over by dirt and debris when the Collis Leather Co. changed the course of the stream.

game was called by agreement. Charlie Southwood, who replaced Jack Flicker the regular netminder in goal, played a fine game, and Bill Patrick, with a trio of markers, was the individual star of the night. Loring Doolittle and Bill Mundell were the other Aurora goal-getters. Tom Armitage, White and Jones were prominent for Maple.

The Aurora kids will be in action each week from now on, and the schedule will be announced soon.

Aurora: Charlie Southwood, Loring Doolittle, Howard Patrick, Bill Patrick, Orval Lawson, Phil Davidson, Bill Mundell, "Tuffy" Nesbitt.

PLAY TONIGHT

Aurora girl softballers will meet Newmarket ladies in what promises to be a battle royal at the Aurora town park tonight at 7 o'clock. Both teams are in the undefeated class and in their previous meetings this year are about even-steps. This time it's a league game with the leadership at stake.

BOXLA RIVALS MEET
IN JULY 26 CONTEST

After an absence of two weeks due to the slackening of the summer schedule, lacrosse fans will have a chance to see their favorites, the Combines, in action on Friday, July 26, at Aurora arena. The opposition will be provided by the league-leading Woodbridge team, which is going at top speed, and has been improving rapidly.

The last battle in Aurora between these two clubs saw Woodbridge take a one-goal verdict. Combines have handed Russ Rowntree's boys two of their three defeats and hope to draw on even terms with the southerners on Friday. As the schedule is fast coming to a close and the battle for first place and a bye to the finals looms, the contest assumes increased importance. Combines will field all their line-up for the first time in some weeks and the result should provide one of the fastest games of the year.

PROMINENT WORKER,
BURIED IN AURORA

Mrs. T. J. Spaulding, a resident of Aurora for nearly 30 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Dolby, Milton, after an illness of a month.

Mrs. Spaulding, who was in her 83rd year, was born Elizabeth Horst, near Uxbridge, but at the age of two years, on the death of her mother, moved to near Aurora, in Whitechurch township, with Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Oliver, her uncle and aunt, who raised her.

She resided in the township for nearly 50 years, being engaged in farming with her husband, who served as reeve of the township for many years. She was an active member of Wesley United church. On coming to Aurora Mrs. Spaulding played a prominent part in the life of Aurora United church, teaching Sunday-school, being an official of both the W.A. and W.M.S., and active in the work of the W.C.T.U.

Mr. Spaulding predeceased her 14 years ago. She had not been well the past two years, being stricken seriously in May. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. George Dolby (Winnifred), and Mrs. Ken McDougall (Ada), both of Milton, and two sons, Dr. Herbert Spaulding, Erie, Pa., and Harry, London.

Interment was at Aurora cemetery on Saturday, with Rev. Roy F. Hicks in charge. Pallbearers were six nephews, George Richardson, Murray Spaulding, Herbert and Howard Oliver, and George and Russell Sproston.

MRS. THOS. RAESIDE
EXPECTED FROM U.K.

Another British war bride arrives in Aurora this week in the person of Mrs. Thomas Raeside. Mrs. Raeside is the former Iris Joyce Hutt of Woking, Surrey, and the couple were married on Feb. 3 when Cpl. Raeside was overseas with the 1st Hussars. Mrs. Raeside returned home last fall, and his wife is one of the last of the war brides bound for Aurora to arrive.

NAMED HOLIDAY

Monday, Aug. 5, has been proclaimed officially as a civic holiday by Mayor Ross Linton, and will be observed as a holiday by Aurora factories and stores.

HIT BY TRAIN,
MILT. SHERMAN
BURIED HERE

Thirty-five-year-old Milton Sherman of Aurora, C.N.R. road foreman, was almost instantly killed at Concord station when struck by a northbound C.N.R. passenger train early Sunday morning.

Mr. Sherman was scheduled to start on his holidays on Saturday. Pending relief from his duties, he made his customary Sunday inspection of the line in company with Pete Letts of Vondorf. The two left Aurora on the jigger and it is thought they were going to Concord when No. 46 was slightly behind schedule, believing they could reach the open switch before the northbound train arrived. They had the small car practically off the main line and on the switch when No. 46, a non-stop train at Concord, came down the line. Mr. Sherman was on the inside and Mr. Letts on the outside of the track. They were attempting to save the jigger but the train was unable to stop and they failed to get clear.

Mr. Letts managed to roll to the ditch but Mr. Sherman was tossed in the air and landed 100 feet away. The train was driven by engineer Andrew Manson and the conductor was Ray Lee.

Mr. Sherman had been an employee of the railway for close to 15 years. Coroner Dr. C. J. Devins was called to the scene and he has announced an inquest for mid-August. County Constable Aubrey Fleury of Aurora is investigating. The accident occurred around 6:30 a.m. standard time.

Born in Beeton, a member of a well known railway family, Mr. Sherman was a respected citizen of Aurora, leading a quiet life, devoted to his family and a member of Aurora United church. He is survived by his widow, the former Myrtle Jardine, and two daughters, Shirley, 14, and Gloria, 7. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sherman, reside here, and he is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Albert, Mrs. Raymond White (May), Mrs. Charles Stone (Pearl), Mary and Adell, all of Aurora, Carl and Earl of Beeton, Ernest, Chatham, Mrs. George Hodges (Louise), Ashabula, Ohio, and Mrs. George Miller (Hilda), and Hazel of Toronto.

The funeral was held at his late residence on Tuesday with Rev. Roy F. Hicks in charge. Pallbearers were Stewart Patrick, George Baldwin, Al Mitchell, Thomas Swindle, Peter Letts and Earl Seaton. Interment was at Aurora cemetery.

RETIRED FARMER, 70,
SAMPSON WATSON DIES

Funeral services were held on Tuesday at P. M. Thompson's Funeral home for the late Sampson Watson, Maple St., who died at York County hospital on Sunday.

Mr. Watson, who was in his 71st year, was born in West Gwillimbury township in the Scotch Settlement, his parents having come there in the 80's from western Canada following the Riel rebellion. He farmed there most of his life, retiring to Aurora about 15 years ago. His wife predeceased him four years ago. Some months ago he was struck by an automobile at Yonge and Wellington Sts. and never fully recovered. He was a member of Aurora United church.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. R. F. Hicks and Rev. A. R. Park.

Farmers To Apply
For Highway Entrance

Farmers in King township, who have property adjacent to the new highway and wish to obtain an entrance to the highway from their farm, must apply in writing to the municipal clerk and pay a fee of $150. Council will then direct the road superintendent to install a culvert suitable for the site at no further cost to the applicant. The farmer is responsible for his own road construction.

Mrs. Anne McDowell Burrage of Unionville, mother of Mr. Milton McDowell, celebrated her 84th birthday on Thursday.

$18,837 In Contracts
To Extend Streets
Awarded By Council

Aurora town council on Thursday evening awarded contracts amounting to $18,837.50 for street construction, water mains, and sewers. The work will be begun by Aug. 1.

The Hagersville Asphalt Paving Co. was awarded the contract for building 1,250 feet of the Edward St. extension south at a price of $6,837.50. The street will run past the new Hart plant and will connect with Cousins Drive, yet to be provided for as a street.

K. M. Morrison of Toronto, will receive $6,575 for laying 250 feet of storm sewer, and a sanitary sewer from Gurnett and Connaught St. to Cousins Drive, a distance of 1,750 feet. The materials and sewer pipe needed are included in the contract price.

A. E. Hawkins of Aurora received the contract for new water mains at a price of $5,425. Two thousand eight hundred and fifty feet will be laid eastward on Wellington St. and 1,450 feet will be laid south from Metcalfe St. to Cousins Drive.

Pipe and other materials for the water mains are being purchased by the municipality and the ultimate cost will be something over $5,000. This brings the total expenditures to close to $24,000.

The Gurnett St. extension, now under contract to A. E. Hawkins, is expected to exceed the original figure by over $1,000, bringing the total cost to the town not budgeted for in this year's estimates at around $25,000.

The cost of laying the water mains will be borne by the waterworks department of the municipality which has a handsome surplus in account although it may be necessary to dig into waterworks reserve funds now in bonds to meet the total cost.

As yet, council has not decided how the cost of the extra $15,000 or more will be borne since it was not included in the 1946 estimates. It can be carried as overdraft on a pay-as-you-go basis and reduced from year to year, or it may be carried by debenture. In the latter case the permission of the Ontario municipal board would have to be secured. There is little doubt but that the department would approve since the work was of an urgent character.

In addition to the above work, in view of houses being built and lots sold for building purposes, the extension of Wells St. south to Cousins Drive, and the extension as a street of Cousins Drive to Edward St. are also under consideration. Council has not arrived at any decision in the matter. Water and sewer extensions would also be required.

The increase in municipal assessment with new buildings and the additional taxes would go a long way towards meeting the costs involved of present expenditures and others that might be undertaken. The properties affected would likely be subject to local improvement rates for the work done, which would relieve the municipality as a whole of about one-third of the cost involved.

POETRY OR BIRTHDAY BOOKS

By GOLDEN GLOW

Now maybe my title won't fit this little article—so if you want to put something else at the top after you have read it, go ahead. I won't mind! I just can't think of anything appropriate.

You see, it is like this—I have an old birthday book—for the benefit of this generation perhaps I'd better explain. You see, you young folks, we of a former generation used to have autograph albums, photograph albums, not like the modern ones for snapshots, but made for cabinet size photos, and birthday books.

We asked each other to write in our autograph albums and if one wrote some original poetry or painted a picture besides, we thought them extra clever, you may be sure. Also we asked them to write in our birthday books and you were supposed as well to put the year of your birth. I bet they could be used as a "proof of age" when all else failed—or could they? How could we be sure folks put down their correct birth year?

All this is a sort of introduction to a little poem I found in this old birthday book. By the way, why not head this "birthday books" instead of "poetry"—I think I will.

You see, there were all kinds of birthday books—some with quotations from Scripture, some from this or that author, Shakespeare, Charles Dickens, Sir Walter Scott, etc., some with poems about certain things. For instance, this old one is Birthday Book of Wit and Humor. Here's a little poem and it struck me as rather clever, but it is signed "anon" so we shall never know who wrote it, nor who inspired it—worse luck! So we can put any name we like to it.

A brow austere, a circumspect eye,

A frequent shrug of the "os humeri",

A nod significant, a stately gait,

A blustering manner and a tone of weight,

A smile sarcastic, an expressive stare—

Adopt all these as time and place will bear.

Then rest assured that those of little sense

Will deem you sure a man of consequence.

There you are—now isn't that a delightful bit of poetry for someone's birthday verse. That "os humeri" fits in so cute when he couldn't say shoulders and make it rhyme. Can't you just picture the whole thing? And I don't doubt each of us could put a name to the image it conjures up too!

That sounds as if I were getting too personal—and "personal remarks are never in good taste". Well, what title do you think will suit this little article? I can't decide so I'll leave it to my readers to put one on for me.

KESWICK

Mrs. Gould, Rochester, N.Y., is with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Prosser.

Mr. Walter Irvine is a patient in Western hospital, Toronto.

Constable Harold W. Waldon of the R.C.M.P. was married to Miss Margaret Jex, Cobourg, on July 20. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Waldon, his sisters, Miss Florence Waldon and Mrs. S. Harron, and his brother-in-law were in Cobourg for the ceremony in the United church and for the reception at the home of a relative of the bride.

Other Keswick or ex-Keswick people present were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. King, Mr. and Mrs. Byron King, Mrs. Ray Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. White, Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Lapp. Mr. Lapp assisted the Cobourg minister in the ceremony.

Mrs. Thos. Cole, Indianola Beach, will be soloist at the United church morning service of July 28. Evening service will be in the open air at Pine Beach park at 8 o'clock.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Fockler, Maple, are holidaying at their Keswick Beach cottage. Miss Margaret Fockler is assisting with the leadership of the intermediate North York girls' camp at Duclos Point.

Misses Lois Marritt and Marion King are also on the staff of the camp, while Carolyn Atchison and Mary Morton are among the campers.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Winch, Jr., spent the weekend at Rousseau Road, in the Parry Sound district, where Gordon Winch is in charge of one of the summer mission fields of the United Church of Canada.

CORRECTION

The picture, purporting to be that of Rev. Albert E. Millen, newly-inducted minister at Queensville and printed in last week's issue of The Era and Express, was actually that of the newly-elected president of the International Association of Lions Clubs, Clifford D. Pierce, Memphis, Tenn.

The editor regrets the error and hopes to be able to print the picture of Rev. Millen in an early issue.

The Veterans' softball team is going great guns, and they are now into the second half of their schedule, home games to be played on Thursday evenings.

News On Recreation

By E. R. MATHER

Office hours: 3:30-5:50, firehall, phone 695.

There are endless forms of recreation that the recreation council is interested in promoting. From time to time I have mentioned some of them, and they range through all interests and ages. So far the response has been from the young people and it has been encouraging.

However there must be many adults who feel that they would like to get together and work and play at something. The recreation council cannot work in the dark and before any sizeable expenditures of time, money, or effort are made, we want to be sure that there is fairly substantial justification. So let's hear from you—tell us what you want and we'll see what can be done.

The suggestion made in this column about swimming for adults was taken up by a few young people and possibly in time there will be a large swimming club. It can cover all ages—the swimming is done in the late afternoon, about 6 p.m. If you want to know more about it call Beverly Bartholomew at 668 evenings.

The swimming program for the public school age children has undergone some slight changes that most of the children already know about. The X, Y, G classes, the A, B, C, and D, E, F, have all been compressed into one going each day, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at the respective hours of 8:20, 9:20, and 10:20 a.m., except on Thursday when the X, Y, G class gives way to a new group that we are starting.

This new class will go down on Thursday mornings at 8:20. There is no age limit on this at all, the only requirement being that you are free to take an hour or so off at that time. It will apply mainly to young people of high school age, many of whom have already expressed the fact that they are free at that time and would like to go down with us. We will try to improve the swimmers and we shall be happy to try and teach others how to swim.

Lost and Found department—our loot from the buses after each swimming period is growing rapidly. Already I have at my office, one blue bathing suit, one brown sweater-coat, two towels.

We have coming to this office information about various activities that are going on around the countryside. On the weekend of Aug. 3, for instance, there is to be a big jamboree put on by the Hunting and Field Archers of Ontario, at Novar. If we have any keen archers in town, I would be glad to give them further information.

We also have here a substantial library on many phases of recreation, and we can provide you with information about anything, or if not, we know where to get it. We have plans for home-made play apparatus, things that many parents might be interested in putting up in their back-yard for their children. We have a picnic book, which is good for families or for large organizations—it is full of hints and ideas and would help you make your picnic a success. Or if you want to know the correct dimensions for a horse-shoe pitch, a shuffle-board, a baseball diamond, etc., we can give it to you. These publications have been purchased in order to be of use to the community, so come and use them.

There is an Institute of community leadership being held at McMaster University, Hamilton, Aug. 5 to Aug. 10, for group leaders in recreation, handicrafts, music, community welfare and club and church activities, etc. There are no fees as it is sponsored by the department of education, and the Adult Education Board of Ontario; more complete information can be had by contacting this office.

Baseball. The juniors in the North York league are well into the finals and have a few more games ahead of them yet. The midgets have disbanded after having completed their schedule. Much credit is due to the kids for staying with a tough season, and much credit goes also to the joint coaches, Bill Haskett and Mel Ruddock. Eddie Gibson and Harry Thoms were practically on the staff too as they followed all the games and helped out on most of the trips, as well as doing the odd bit of base-umpiring. Thanks go to other drivers who contributed their cars and their time, Cliff Gunn, R. Caradonna, W. J. Geer, H. E. Gilroy, Dr. L. W. Dales, B. Selton, C. Bunn, J. Walker, C. Boyd, V. Thompson, and others.

Midlet Town league. With the closing of the North York league, most of the kids felt that they would like to carry on. Three teams were formed around a nucleus of the midgets. Possibly others would like to get in on the team; if so see the captains of any one of the three teams, Donaldson of the Dodgers, Thoms of the Tigers, or Gibson of the Cardinals. These games will be played in the evenings; the age limit is 16, and 15 for the batteries. Bantam softball. There is a league beginning here for boys of approximately 14 and under. Games will be played at 2 p.m. at the Stuart Scott school ground; first game Thursday. Captains so far are Wendell Gilbert, Alvin McKnight, John DeLaHaye and Melfort McCaffrey. The schedule has not been made up yet so there is room for as many more players and teams that want to get in. The same goes for the hardball.

Playgrounds. The recreation council and the Lions club both feel that the program at the Lions Park may not be reaching many of the small children who live at a great distance from the park. To this end then, the recreation council will be starting two supplementary playgrounds, one at St. John's school and one at Alexander Muir. These will be for children of pre-school age, 6 and under. Activities will be of the quiet type, group singing, games, a little craft work, sand boxes, etc. Volunteers who might be interested in dropping around one hour a week and reading or telling a story, or any other contribution, will be very welcome. The playgrounds will be supervised by the council.

HEAR BREAK-IN CHARGE
IN HIGHER COURT
Magistrate J. E. Pritchard,
K.C., ruled there was sufficient evidence against the two youths,
who were last week charged with breaking and entering Cousins Dairy, Aurora, to warrant trial by a higher court, in magistrate's court in Newmarket on Friday.

Miss Edwina Quantz, who is employed as bookkeeper by Cousins Dairy, Aurora, stated that she had locked the safe, the front door and the two doors leading into the dairy before leaving on July 8. She also stated that she had locked the windows. When she arrived at work on the morning of July 9,
she found the top of the safe wrecked and cement around the safe broken.

Archie Cousins, proprietor of the dairy, stated he had been notified about a quarter to six on the morning of July 9 of a break-in at the dairy. He said he arrived about 7 o'clock and found papers and other articles strewn over the floor, the milk shake machine and tins, cloth-

closure of the safe lying around.
He stated the safe is built into the building. He stated his wife discovered the screen was off the northerly window of the building and lying about six feet from the building.

Detective Milton Wallace of York county stated he had found a partial fingerprint on the screen in the normal position a person's left thumb would rest, about half-way up the side on the outside of the screen. He stated he had taken the fingerprints of one of the accused and had then taken him to Toronto where Mr. Guthrie of the identification bureau of the Toronto police took his fingerprints. He also stated Mr. Guthrie had taken a picture of the fingerprints on the screen. Detective Wallace said he had been unable to get a clear picture of the fingerprints himself because of the position.

Mr. Guthrie then took the stand and explained several of the identical points in the ac-cused's fingerprint and that on the screen from photos he had taken.

Douglas Adie, Toronto, was fined $15 and costs on a charge of illegal possession of liquor to which he pleaded guilty. Constable Geo. Foster laid the charge.

Mark Hastings, Toronto,
pleaded guilty to a charge of
illegal possession of liquor laid
by Constable Foster and was fined $20 and costs.

William Russell Jallow, R. R.
1, Cannington, pleaded guilty to being in a public place in an intoxicated condition and was fined $10 and costs. The charge was laid by Constable Wm. Hill.

Mrs. Leona Shier, Sunderland,
pleaded guilty to a charge of driving without a license and was fined $10 and costs or ten days.

Harold McFadden, Toronto,
pleaded guilty to a charge of
illegal possession of liquor laid
by Constable Foster, and was fined $15 and costs.

Arthur Thomas, Toronto,
pleaded guilty to a charge of
illegal possession of liquor laid
by Constable Heath Hamilton and was fined $20 and costs.
The charges against Don McNeil and Joe Anderson, who were charged with Thomas, were withdrawn.

Michael F. Dolan, Toronto, was fined $15 and costs on a charge of illegal possession of liquor.

Murray E. Zuber, Toronto,
Robert Hueson and Jack Woods, Agincourt, were each fined $10
and costs on a charge of illegal possession laid by Constable Aubrey Fleury. On a charge of causing a disturbance at Cedar Beach Gardens, Musselman's
Lake, in the Cedar Beach tea-room, they pleaded not guilty
and the charge was dismissed.
The charge was laid by Constable Ivan Pattenden.

On a further charge, that of failing to produce his registration card, Woods was fined $2 and costs. The three accused were defended by Harry Willis of Toronto.

A charge of illegal possession of liquor against Ivor Taylor Frances, Toronto, was adjourned for one week in order to have the contents of the bottle confiscated by the police analyzed.

Newton Mandes, Toronto, was fined $25 and costs or 30 days on a charge of careless driving laid by Constable Wm. Hill, Sutton.
A charge of dangerous driving was dismissed. In his defence Mandes stated he was at the intersection at Jackson's Point before he realized it and his brakes had locked. In passing sentence, Magistrate Pritchard said there was evidence of excessive speed.

John Perks, Sutton, was fined $25 and costs or ten days on a charge of using abusive language and shouting at Murray Freedman, Sutton.

THANK YOU

To my friends and customers, I wish to announce that I have disposed of my garage at the White Rose Service Station, 165 Main St., to a Newmarket ex-serviceman, Aubrey Rowland, a motor mechanic in and out of the service that I recommend to you very highly as an honest, expert workman who will look after your every motor need in a friendly way.

May I thank you all for many years of pleasant business association and wish you all God speed.

HAVE THREE WINS

The rink skipped by Mrs. C. G. Wainman with Mrs. R. D. Brown and Mrs. Ronald Watt, had three wins at Stouffville July 9. Mrs. Wainman's rink was one of three from Newmarket.

ENGAGEMENTS

The engagement is announced of Joan Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Mrs. Nesbitt and the late John Edward Nesbitt, Newmarket, to Isaac (Ike) Williamson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson, the marriage to take place on August 14 in St. Paul's Anglican church, Newmarket, at 4 p.m.

A background of white gladioli formed the setting at St. John's Anglican church, Ottawa, for the wedding on July 20 of Edna June Wright, daughter of Mr. Wilbur C. Wright, Hammonds Plains, N.S., and James Alexander Tod, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Tod, Newmarket. Mr. L. S. Verr was at the organ and Miss Jean Davis was soloist. Canon Northcote Burke performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by Mr. Gordon B. Isnor, M.P., the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin with a slight train and fingertip veil. She carried a cascade of deep red roses. Miss Jean MacLeod was bridesmaid and had chosen a blue sheer gown and carried a mixed cascade.

Mr. Claude H. M. Smith was best man. Mr. Ghent L. Davis and Mr. Howard Hamilton were the ushers.

At the reception which followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Evoy, Ottawa, Miss Mae Wright, sister of the bride, received in a grey printed sheer dress, and the groom's mother was attired in a pale blue shadow crepe dress.

For travelling the bride donned a coral mesh dress with brown and white accessories. They will make their home in London.

Guests present from a distance included Miss Mae Wright, Mrs. Leslie Wright, Halifax, Miss Jean Davis, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Davis, Mr. Wm. Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, Toronto, Mr. Howard Hamilton, Barrie, and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Tod, Newmarket.

HAROLD WALDON
WEDS IN COBOURG

Trinity United church, Cobourg, was the setting for a midsummer wedding when Margaret Yale Jex, daughter of Mrs. D. W. Jex, Cobourg, and the late Mr. Jex, became the bride of Constable Harold Arthur Waldon, R.C.M.P., Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Waldon, Keswick. Rev. W. Woodger performed the ceremony assisted by Rev. Gordon Lapp of Keswick. The wedding music was played by Mr. Alfred Mortimer and the soloist was Miss Grace Hinman.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Major Harold D. Hayden, she wore a gown of ivory slipper satin with bouffant skirt. Her full-length veil of tulle illusion fell from a halo of matching satin. She carried a cascade of stephanotis, gardenias and regal lilies.

Attending the bride were Miss Isobel MacLeod, maid of honor, in daffodil yellow, Mrs. Harold Hayden, in sky blue taffeta, and Mrs. George Case, Buffalo, in hyacinth taffeta. The junior bridesmaid was Carol Hayden who wore white dotted swiss. All carried bouquets of gladioli petals, pinocchio roses and cornflowers.

The groomsmen were Sgt. Karl Lockwood, R.C.M.P., Ottawa. The ushers were R.C.M.P. Constables George Pickering and Donald Hibert.

Afterwards a reception was held at Gable Cottage, home of Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Hayden, where the bride's mother received wearing classic beige crepe with corsage of gladioli petals, roses and cornflowers. She was assisted by the groom's mother, in dusty rose crepe with similar corsage.

Western Ontario was chosen for the wedding trip and for travelling the bride changed into a dress of green printed silk jersey and white accessories.

Miss Gwen Wilnot has been taken to the hospital.

A FLAG SUGGESTION

One of the difficulties foreseen if we decide to have a Maple Leaf on our flag is that of choosing one from our 17 varieties of maple. Why not solve the whole matter by putting a sap bucket on the flag, the sap to do honor to the taxpayer and the bucket to symbolize the government?

—Peterborough Examiner.

Members Of Willis Family
Have Reunion Here Monday

A family re-union was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Willis, Millard Ave., in honor of Mr. Willis' two nephews, Charles and Clifford Willis, of Sherbrooke, Que., Monday evening.

Charles Willis, the elder nephew, is a wing commander with the D.F.C. and is now stationed at Halifax. He has the regular flight between Halifax and Ottawa. He is married and his home is in Halifax.

Clifford Willis, his youngest brother, is paymaster lieutenant in the Royal Canadian Navy and is stationed at Dartmouth, N.S.

Their father, Bert Willis, moved to Lansing from Sherbrooke three months ago. They have lived in Sherbrooke 30 years. Charles and Clifford wanted to see their parents in their new home and planned to have a few hours together.

The relatives thought it would be appropriate to get together at a lawn party, but the weather was so showery that the party was held indoors. Thirty relatives were present on the occasion.

Another son, Kenneth, a University of Toronto and his parents had hoped to have three sons at home together a few hours once more, but time being Christmas, 1931, unfortunately, Charles was the flier, was unable to come the last minute owing to the exigencies of the service.
